

Calligraphy Report for 6th March 2026

This month, we tortured ourselves with origami heart shaped book marks!

The trials and tribulations of the 'Beak Fold' will never be repeated, such welcome news for the Gang!

In spite of that, we were all still very successful.

We used our calligraphy skills, writing anagrams and words that the English language desperately need.

Next month, what new torment can I come up with?

Jackie Abrehart