

Calligraphy Report for 10th April 2026

This month, a week late, we made two types of never-ending cards. One was easier for construction and the other was time consuming for the decoration. Both turned out well with a little bit of calligraphy thrown in for good measure.

Many thanks to Jennie for the scrummy half time cakes,

Next time what will our challenge be?

Jackie Abrehart

